

Hebron News Update

Friday 25th October 24

This Sunday morning in our 11am service, Jonny will be preaching from our series in Matthew and we'll be sharing communion together. Sunday School and creche will meet in their usual slots during the second part of the morning service. (Bible Class will resume on November 3rd.)

In the evening at 6.30pm, we will meet back upstairs to continue our study in Zechariah with Willie having a look at chapters 7 and 8.

Remember that you can join us earlier in the day as we have our Sunday Morning Prayer time at 10.30am, through in the side hall, with tea and coffee being served from 10.15am in the atrium. Then after the morning service you are welcome to have a cup of tea or coffee downstairs in the Conference Room until 12.45pm.

Sunday lunch for all students and young adults will be served this week after the morning service. Everyone who fits those categories is warmly invited to stay and spend some time getting to know others in the church.

Note that a week on Sunday (3rd November) there's no lunch in church – instead we will have our first "Hosts at Home" lunch of the year. Sign-up will be necessary in advance, for hosts and guests, so find out more on the church website at www.hebronaberdeen.org.uk/lunch

Also on 3rd November we look forward to witnessing the baptism of Samuel Binnie. If you are thinking about baptism, any of the elders would be delighted to talk with you about it.

The Thanksgiving Service for Lilian Wilson will be held in Hebron on Monday 28th October at 12.30pm followed by refreshments in the church hall. All are also welcome to attend the interment at Springbank cemetery at 11am before the service. A livestream link will be available at www.hebronaberdeen.org.uk/lilian for any who are not able to be there.

All mid-week groups and Home Groups resume normal schedules this week, with Monday Club having a Light Party in their usual slot, and choir rehearsals for the Christmas Carol Service continue on Monday evening at 7.30pm.

The annual Hebron Ladies Christmas Ceramics night is to be held in the church on Saturday 23rd November at 7.30pm. Booking before 15th November is required, so sign-up is now open on the church website at www.hebronaberdeen.org.uk/crafts

You will remember, from our newsletter a couple of weeks ago, the story of Pastor Maximo Augilar in Bolivia and his need for a new motorbike. Maximo has sent a video giving thanks for the motorbike he was able to purchase after receiving funding from Hebron and other UK Christian trusts. You can see the video on our website using this link.

Every Blessing,
